Sights, Shopping, and Snacks

You came to Jacksonville to transform your career, but you also want to have a good time and do fun things.

Whether you want to learn something new, engage in commerce, get a bit of exercise, or just sit back and have a couple of beers with your buddies, Jacksonville has you covered.

LOOKING TO KILL AN AFTERNOON ON A BEAUTIFUL DAY?

Here are some ideas as to how that can be done:

Stroll along the JACKSONVILLE RIVERWALKS, a series of trails and open space along both sides of the St. Johns River.

Head over to the ST. JOHNS TOWN CENTER and shop in an enormous open-air mall.

Say hello to some furry friends at the JACKSONVILLE ZOO AND GARDENS.

Learn new things at the CUMMER MUSEUM.

HUNGRY?

There are endless dining options in Jacksonville. Here are some places you have to check out:

BLACK SHEEP RESTAURANT

is known for using local ingredients to deliver unforgettable dining experiences.

MAPLE STREET BISCUIT COMPANY is a breakfast-and-lunch spot that serves biscuits, chicken, and jams you won't forget about anytime soon.

MOXIE KITCHEN

offers thoughtfully sourced food right in the St. Johns Town Center.

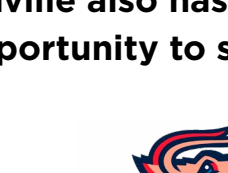

THE BEARDED PIG

is a barbecue eatery located on the south bank of the St. Johns River.

Sports, Seafood, and Sounds

Are you passionate about your career but also a diehard sports fan who's always trying to catch a live sporting event?

Jacksonville has all kinds of sports teams that appeal to both the casual fan and the true fanatic:

Jacksonville Jaguars (NFL)

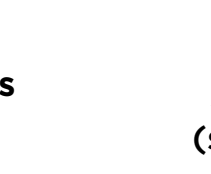

How will the team do with former Super Bowl MVP Nick Foles at quarterback?

THE PLAYERS

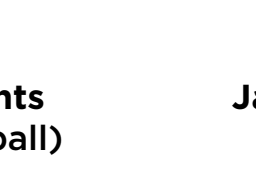

The Players Championship (PGA Tour)

If you've never seen the world's best golfers in action, you're missing out.

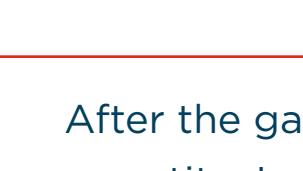

Who says you need to go to a major sporting event to have a good time? Jacksonville also has a ton of minor league sports teams that give you an opportunity to see athletes in action before they become stars:

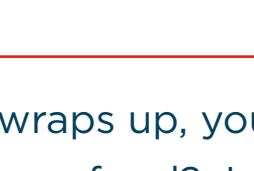

Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp (AA for Miami Marlins)

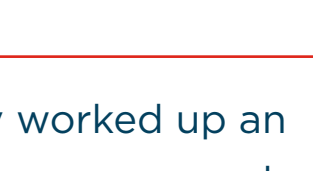

Jacksonville Icemen (minor league hockey)

Jacksonville Sharks (indoor football)

Jacksonville Giants (semi-pro basketball)

Jacksonville Axemen (rugby)

After the game or event wraps up, you've probably worked up an appetite. In the mood for seafood? Jacksonville has you covered:

SAFE HARBOR SEAFOOD RESTAURANT

serves up fresh local seafood right on the beach.

CLARK'S FISH CAMP SEAFOOD RESTAURANT

is affectionately known as "The People's Place."

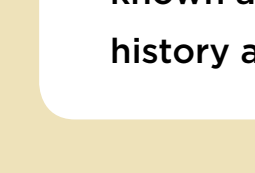

SALT LIFE FOOD SHACK

offers an eclectic seafood menu.

Learn, Laugh, and Live

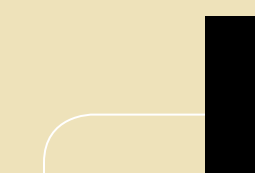

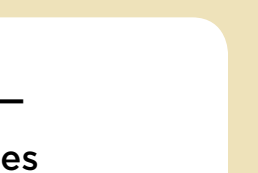

You're ready to relaunch your career to provide a better life for your family, but you also want to show your spouse and kids a good time.

JACKSONVILLE SAVES THE DAY HERE, TOO:

THE RIVERSIDE ARTS MARKET is an awesome open-air market that highlights the work of artists, artisans, farmers, and makers. Everyone in the family will find something fun to do here.

JACKSONVILLE'S MUSEUM OF SCIENCE & HISTORY, more commonly known as the MOSH, has a slew of interesting science and history artifacts that will intrigue visitors of all ages.

THEATRE JACKSONVILLE puts on all kinds of productions—comedies, dramas, tragedies. The venue also schedules events that appeal to all age groups.

Sick of shopping or being inside, and want to feel the sun shining on your face?

NOW AND ZEN SAILING CHARTERS

offers overnight getaways, day trips, and full-throated sailing vacations that are sure to delight you and your family.

LITTLE TALBOT ISLAND STATE PARK

is full of places to explore, with undeveloped beaches, ancient sand dunes, and a secluded barrier island.

Getting Around
